

Summer Reading Expectations for Students Entering 6th Grade

Book #1: Al Capone Does my Shirts by Gennifer Choldenko

Book #2: Choose one book within your Lexile range and/or at your grade level.

This summer you will read two books and complete the activity of your choice for each of the books from the following:

1. Character Book Selection. Select a character and then choose five books (fiction or nonfiction) for him or her, thinking about what he or she might like and what you think they need to know more about. Scan library shelves or the Internet for ideas. Why did you select the books you did? What do you hope your character will like about or get out of the book? Write one paragraph for each book selected.
2. A character alphabet. Choose a character you liked and then create sentences based on the alphabet scheme that demonstrate your knowledge of the character. Here is an example- If after reading Spite Fences, you decided to write Zeke's alphabet it could start like this: A is for the ABUSE Zeke took at the hands of a racist mob. B is for his BENDING OVER BACKWARDS to make sure the visiting civil rights activist could work in obscurity. C is for the CAMERA he gave Maggie so she could begin to look at the world in new ways.
3. Tangible or intangible gifts. Select a character and figure out five things you believe your character most needs or wants. Draw or cut out pictures to represent these "gifts" and write to your character an explanation of why you picked these things out for him or her. Minimum two pages.
4. College application. Create the application that a character you have just read about could write and submit to a college. Use all the information you know about the character and infer and create the rest of it. On the application include Name, Academic Rank in Class, High School Courses Taken and Grades, Extracurricular Activities and Personal Activities, and Work Experience. Choose one of the following questions to answer in a two-page essay from the character's point of view: what experience, event, or person has had a significant impact on your life? Discuss a situation where you have made a difference. Describe your areas of interest, your personality, and how they relate to why you would like to attend this college.
5. Awards. Create an award for each of the main characters based on their actions in the novel. One might be awarded "most courageous" for fighting peer pressure, another might be awarded "wisest" for the guidance he or she gave other characters. For each award, write a minimum of one paragraph that explains why this character deserves this award.

Please contact me at Shill@btschool.org if you have any questions regarding these assignments.

Have a wonderful summer and happy reading!
